

Please keep the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. When I get home after a long day at work, I don't need people calling to sell me something I don't want. If I am interested in a product, I will look for it in a store or on the web.

Thank you,
Robert A. Gruen Sr.